STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

(For issuance of an arrest warrant or summons)

I state that on 8-6-2013 while performing my duties as a law enforcement officer in the U.S. District of Texas

On August 06, 2013 at approximately 1332 hours, I was dispatched by Denver Mega Center to the U.S. Historic Courthouse 511 E. San Antonio, El Paso, Texas 79901 by request of the Protective Security Officer (PSO). The (PSO) advised that a subject at that location was refusing to comply with building rules and regulations by identifying himself and was refusing to move a vehicle standing/parking in an area restricted to law enforcement parking only. Upon arrival, I observed a female standing by the X-Ray machine causing a disturbance with her loud tone of voice. The female was yelling that she was in a hurry and did not have time for any this. I asked her for her identification and advised her per the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) that a form of state/government identification would be required to enter a government building as the PSO's had instructed her. The female subject finally provided a Texas driver's license identifying her as RAAMIREZ, Maria Bernia DOB: [redacted] I then told RAAMIREZ that I would show her where it states on the posted (CFR) that identification would be required. RAAMIREZ again began to yell of how she did not have time and refused my offer. RAAMIREZ insisted to go upstairs to Pre-trial office to pick up some paperwork and I informed her that she could not until her car was moved, she also refused. Attempting to deescalate the situation I told RAAMIREZ to go upstairs and get her paperwork and I will hold on to her identification to complete a citation and I would return it to her when she returned from upstairs. As RAAMIREZ went upstairs I stepped outside the building to the parking area to retrieve her vehicle information for completing of my citation but as I approached the vehicle was being moved by another driver.

I returned inside to complete my citations as RAAMIREZ returned and began to yell that she wanted her identification back. I advised her I was still completing my paperwork as she became more vocal. Inspector Martinez stepped between RAAMIREZ and me, informing her that I still needed to talk to her and complete my paperwork. RAAMIREZ became upset and said she was leaving. Inspector Martinez attempted to tell her to stop that we were not complete but she refused and ran off into her vehicle departing the area.
